

The Catholic

Imagination and the American University

Robert Orsi is the first holder of the Grace Craddock Nagle Chair in Catholic Studies at Northwestern. Previously, he taught at Fordham University, Indiana University, Harvard Divinity School and Harvard University. A past president of the American Academy of Religion, Dr. Orsi studies American Catholicism in both historical and ethnographic perspective, and is widely recognized for his work on theory and method for the study of religion.

The Fifth Annual Endowed Lecture in American Catholic Thought and Culture

featuring

Dr. Robert Orsi

Northwestern University

7:00pm • Thursday, October 7, 2010

Erickson Hall Kiva • Michigan State University

free parking in lots at Erickson Hall and across Shaw Lane

FREE and Open to the Public!

Sponsored by St. John Church and Student Center / MSU Arts & Letters Endowment in American Catholic Thought and Culture, Co-Sponsored by Institute for the Study of Christianity and Culture